March 2024

Clash of Inventors

Alexander Graham Bell is hailed as the inventor of the telephone. It was Bell who discovered that sound travels over electrical wires and that these wires can be connected in a way that allows two people to speak to each other over long distances. On March 10, 1876, the telephone was born when Bell spoke to his assistant, Thomas A. Watson, saying, "Mr. Watson. Come here. I want to see you."

Was Bell the sole inventor of the telephone? Another renowned inventor, Elisha Gray, was working on a similar device. On February 14, 1876, Bell submitted an application to the patent office for his telephone. Just hours later, Gray submitted his own application for a patent.

Gray wrote: "To all whom it may concern: Be it known that I, Elisha Gray, of Chicago, in the County of Cook, and State of Illinois, have invented a new art of transmitting vocal sounds telegraphically, of which the following is a specification: It is the object of my invention to transmit the tones of the human voice through a telegraphic circuit, and reproduce them at the receiving end of the line, so that actual conversations can be carried on by persons at long distances apart."

When Gray discovered that Bell was awarded the patent, he took Bell to court. Not only did Gray believe that he submitted his paperwork first, he believed that Bell learned of one of his designs and stole it. How did Bell steal Gray's design?

One of the patent examiners at the patent office swore in an affidavit that he had shared Gray's paperwork and designs with Bell. The legal battle lasted over two years.

The courts eventually ruled that while Gray had invented an important, even vital, component of the telephone, Bell had succeeded in creating the whole telephone. The rest, as they say, is history.

Jelly Bean Guessing Game

Here's the challenge...try to guess the amount of jellybeans in the jar. If your guess is the closest (either over or under the exact amount), you will win the entire contents of the jar! Winners will be drawn after the Easter holiday.

There is a jar in each campus; therefore there will be one winner in each. Jars & guessing slips can be found:

EAST = Front Entrance
West = Front Office
South = Staff Desk

The logo is a large orange hexagon with rounded corners, outlined in white. Inside the hexagon, the word "Serenity" is written in a large, white, cursive script. Below it, the words "Family Owned & Operated" are written in a smaller, white, sans-serif font. Two white wheat stalks are positioned on either side of the text, crossing at the bottom. The background of the entire image is a soft-focus photograph of a field of golden wheat under a blue sky with light clouds.
