November 2022

Up for Adoption

Although Thanksgiving is celebrated in October in Canada and in November in the United States, both countries often share one tradition: a delicious roast turkey for the Thanksgiving feast. Why has turkey become the iconic meal for this holiday? Why not chicken, goose, ham, or beef? The menu choice is gastronomical as well as historical—with the long-held belief that the Pilgrims ate turkey during their “First Thanksgiving.” But did America’s European settlers actually feast on this gobbling bird?

We know from the memoirs of William Bradford, governor of the Plymouth colony, that wild turkeys roamed the area around Plymouth Rock. However, when we look to colonist Edward Winslow’s firsthand account of the First Thanksgiving, there is no mention of turkey. He notes “wild fowl,” but this could just have easily meant duck or goose.

If eating a turkey seems “fowl,” consider adopting one instead. November is Adopt-a-Turkey Month, and rescue organization Farm Sanctuary will be hard at work finding loving homes for a revolving array of needy turkeys. And why stop at turkeys when you could adopt an entire barnyard?

Or perhaps you would prefer the nation adopt the turkey as its new national bird. Founding Father Benjamin Franklin himself denounced the bald eagle as America’s symbol, writing, “I wish the Bald Eagle had not been chosen the Representative of our Country. He is a Bird of bad moral Character...the Turkey is in Comparison a much more respectable Bird, and withal a True original Native of America.” Is it time to redesign the U.S. Presidential Seal?

NOVEMBER MOVIES

The following movies are scheduled once per week in each building. Please refer to the weekly activity calendar for dates and times of scheduled movies.

Elsa & Fred (2014)

In New Orleans, a feisty retiree (Shirley MacLaine) and her new neighbor, an uptight widower (Christopher Plummer), discover that it's never too late for true love and romance.

The Little Princess (1939)

The Little Princess is a 1939 American drama film directed by Walter Lang. The screenplay by Ethel Hill and Walter Ferris is loosely based on the 1905 novel A Little Princess by Frances Hodgson Burnett. The film was the first Shirley Temple movie to be filmed completely in Technicolor. It was also her last major success as a child star.

NOVEMBER MOVIES

Being the Ricardos (2021)

In 1952, Hollywood power couple Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz face personal and professional obstacles that threaten their careers, their relationship, and their hit television show.

The Pajama Game (1957)

The boss of an Iowa pajama factory hires superintendent Sid Sorokin (John Raitt) to help oppose the workers' demand for a seven-and-a-half-cent raise. Sid's handsome, affable presence stirs the jealousy of foreman Vernon Hines, who is dating bookkeeper Gladys Hotchkiss (Carol Haney), and attracts worker "Babe" Williams (Doris Day), a strong advocate for the pay increase. Despite liking Babe, Sid resists the workers' sabotage attempt and must decide whether to fire activist Babe.
